This order shall not otherwise become effective to change the status of the surveyed or unsurveyed public lands which are not continued withdrawn by this order until 10:00 a. m. on October 2, 1947. At that time, subject to valid existing rights (including the rights of the United States to any lands containing improvements owned by it, and the rights of natives based on occupancy), and the provisions of then existing withdrawals, the unsurveyed lands shall become subject to settlement and other forms of appropriation in accordance with the appropriate laws and regulations, and the surveyed lands shall become subject to application, petition, location, or selection as follows:

(a) Ninety-day period for preference-right filings. For a period of 90 days from October 2, 1947, to December 31, 1947, inclusive, the surveyed public lands affected by this order shall be subject to (1) application under the homestead laws or the small tract act of June 1, 1938 (52 Stat. 609, 43 U. S. C. sec. 682a), as amended, by qualified veterans of World War II, for whose service recognition is granted by the act of September 27, 1944 (58 Stat. 747, 43 U. S. C. secs. 279-283), subject to the requirements of applicable law, and (2) application under any applicable public-land law, based on prior existing valid settlement rights and preference rights conferred by existing laws or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation. Application by such veterans shall be subject to claims of the classes described in subdivision (2).

(b) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous preference-right filings. For a period of 20 days from September 12, 1947, to October 1, 1947, inclusive, such veterans and persons claiming preference rights superior to those of such veterans, may present their applications, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on October 2, 1947 shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

(c) Date for non-preference right filings authorized by the public-land laws. Commencing at 10:00 a. m. on January 2, 1948, any of the surveyed lands remaining unappropriated shall become subject to such application, petition, location, or selection by the public generally as may be authorized by the public-land laws.

(d) Twenty-day advance period for simultaneous non-preference right filings. Applications by the general public may be presented during the 20-day period from December 12, 1947, to December 31, 1947, inclusive, and all such applications, together with those presented at 10:00 a. m. on January 2, 1948, shall be treated as simultaneously filed.

Veterans shall accompany their applications with certified copies of their certificates of discharge, or other satisfactory evidence of their military or naval service. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their applications by duly corroborated affidavits in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

Applications for these lands, which shall be filed in the proper district land office (at Fairbanks or Anchorage, Alaska), shall be acted upon in accordance with the regulations contained in § 295.8 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations (Circular No. 324, May 22, 1914, 43 L. D. 254). Applications under the homestead laws shall be governed by the regulations contained in Parts 65 and 66 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations and applications under the small tract act of June 1, 1938, shall be governed by the regulations contained in Part 257 of that title.

Inquiries concerning these lands shall be addressed to the district land office at Fairbanks, or Anchorage, Alaska.

Very little of the land restored by this order has been surveyed. The major part of the area is of a character unsuitable for agricultural purposes.

WILLIAM E. WARNE,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.
